Egyptian Telephone Sponsors Trip to Washington, D.C. for Area Youth

Egyptian Telephone Cooperative Association sponsored Ryan Bechtoldt of Venedy to attend the 24th annual Foundation for Rural Service (FRS) Youth Tour in Washington, D.C., June 2-6. The youth tour introduced the telecommunications industry to students from rural America within a legislative context. Aside from the educational aspects of the trip, students also had the opportunity to tour many of the historical sites in the nation's capital.

educational sessions about the Federal Communications Commission (FCC), the U.S. Department of Agriculture, the Rural Utilities Service (RUS) and more. Students visited some of the nation's most historic sites, including the Vietnam, Korean and World War II memorials, the Supreme Court, the Smithsonian Museums, Arlington National Cemetery, and the Lincoln and Jefferson memorials.

The trip featured a comprehensive overview of the telecommunications industry, including careers in telecom, the critical role telecommunications plays in rural America, and how legislative and regulatory decisions affect the industry.

This year, the youth tour brought together over 100 high school students, from throughout rural communities in the United States. Students arrived in Washington, D.C. for a four-day, educationally and culturally enriching experience. The tour allowed youth to meet with members of Congress who represent rural constituents. They also participated in Egyptian Telephone is dedicated to its communities and sponsoring this trip for local students to visit Washington, D.C. is one way of expressing our commitment. We hope that you look to us not only as your telecommunications provider, but also as a strong supporter of your community.
